2 BILLION IN BONDS TO FINANCE CHANGE

Committee Writes Optional Cost Guarantee Clause Into White House
Price-Raising Bill.

By DON J. KIRKLEY.
WASHINGTON, April 3.—(AP)— Aid for the farmer in meeting his debts, and an effort to boost his income as well, was demanded of congress today by President Roosevelt in a special message urging a broad mortgage relief program.

The new mortgage relief bill, which was introduced in the senate meanwhile by Robinson, of Arkansas, the democratic leader, will be added to the price-lifting bill by the agriculture committee and the whole reported to the senate immediately.

S. C. Governor Vetoes Auto Tag Reduction

COLUMBIA, S. C., April 3.—(AP)— Governor Blackwood said his veto of an act to reduce auto tag fees one-fourth to the clerk of the house of representatives late today. It will be laid before the house when that body reconvenes at noon tomorrow.

A two-thirds vote is necessary to override the veto.

Michigan Votes for Repeal In First Test of Amendment

Vote Averages Two and a Half to One Wet
With No Dry Delegates Assured Convention Seat; Wisconsin Votes Today.

DETROIT, April 3.—(AP)—Barring an entire reversal of the trend shown in incomplete returns from today's repeal referendum, Michigan next Monday formally will cast a convention vote in favor of the elimination of the eighteenth amendment from the federal constitution.

As additional returns became available at midnight, it seemed only a question of how great a margin the repealists would have in the convention which will seat 100 delegates chosen from the state's various legislative districts. A simple majority is needed.

At midnight 11 delegates pledged to vote for repeal definitely had been named. Detroit's 17 delegates also definitely will be committed to vote for elimination of the national prohibition law. In addition to these 28 delegates, a large proportion of the more than 50 other districts heard from were giving their repeal nominees what appeared to be comfortable margins.

Latest figures from Detroit, returns from 100 out of 883 districts for 17 delegates, showed: For repeal
20,533; against repeal 2,220.

In the contest for minor state offices, democratic candidates were leading for all offices on partial returns.
They were carrying more of the ordinally republican strongholds, running two to one even in Wayne county (Detroit). The officers chosen included Justice of the state supreme court, superintendent of public instruction, state highway commissioner, and members of several state boards.

ASSEMBLY PROBE APPEARS UNLIKELY

There appeared to be little probability Monday that there would be an official investigation into charge of lobbying and drinking among members of the general assembly during the recent regular biennial session of the legislature.

Solicitor-General John A. Boykin, to whom T. H. Hall, of Macon, state president of the Taxpayers' League, addressed a letter last week asking the investigation, Monday said he would ask Mr. Hall for specific allegations. The league had previously had told newspapers that he had no direct evidence and that his charges were gleaned from widely circulated reports in Atlanta and elsewhere over the state.

The solicitor-general said he would ask Mr. Hall or his associates if they had any particular information which would lead to direct evidence. He said, however, that he would not direct the investigation until he had heard further from the Macon man.

Governor Eugene Talmadge said Monday that he felt Mr. Hall should have been more specific in his letter, adding that he believed the letter to Mr. Boykin might be construed as an improper attempt to influence legislation.

"I do not think that anyone should make blanket charges," the governor said. "It is a reflection on the entire assembly."

Two Negroes Arrested In Weatherford Death

Two negroes were being held Monday night by police for investigation in connection with the death of W.
C. Weatherford, widely known Atlanta hit-and-run car near his home at 450 Ripley street.

The negroes, who gave their names as Clayton McLendon, 27, of 70 Sunset avenue, and Marion Berry, 24, of a Palmetto avenue address, were arrested by police in a parking lot on Chestnut street. McLendon was said to be the owner of the car.

Police described McLendon's car as being maroon, with the windshield and headlights broken, and with deep den-tations in the right front fender. The description fitted that given police by witnesses after the hit-and-run car had run down Mr. Weatherford. A copy of the Constitution, carrying the story of the man's death, was found in the rear seat of the car.

SCOPE IS WIDENED IN HALL CAMPAIGN

Woolford Organizes Drive to Reach Every Citizen of Atlanta.

Redoubled efforts of the Atlanta committee to raise the city's quota in the drive to subscribe $100,000 for Georgia Hall at Warm Springs, were launched Monday as the second week of the campaign began with the group meeting as guests of Cator Woolford, chairman, and vice chairman of the campaign, decided to broaden the scope of work in order to reach every Atlanta citizen.

Acting on a suggestion by Mr. Woolford, the committee voted to appoint representatives of every business and industrial concern in the city to lead their groups in a canvass. It is planned to give every man, woman and child an opportunity to participate in the movement to honor President Franklin D. Roosevelt and furnish adequate housing for patients at the Warm Springs Foundation.

During the meeting, Mrs. W. P. Dunn, president of the Atlanta Woman's Club, pledged the active support of her organization, and Duncan Peck, president of the Junior Chamber of Commerce, offered the services of every member of his organization. Mrs. Edward Van Winkle, reporting for the Junior League, said their booths at downtown department

Col. Lindbergh Flies With Wireless Beam

NEWARK, N. J., April 3.—(AP)—Colonel Charles A. Lindbergh today made two landings at Newark airport, using the curved wireless beam for guidance.

Accompanied by James H. Kinney, test pilot of the department of commerce, the famous aviator took the controls of a plane with a partly covered cockpit.

After the flights, Lindbergh said he was very much impressed with the wireless beam landing system as an aeronautical development.

stores were collecting subscriptions. Willis A. Sutton, superintendent of Atlanta schools, was present at the meeting.

Reporting on the work of the Atlanta committee, Mr. Woolford expressed optimism that the goal of $100,000 would shortly be reached. "Every Georgian," he said, "should feel privileged to contribute to this cause, and I am sure that within a few days we will have many thousands of dollars in hand."

No reports were received from state chairmen Monday, but increased activity was expected in reports of today.

Upward of $1,000 was received in campaign headquarters at 85 Poplar street from Atlanta contributors Monday. Ivan Allen, Mrs. Alexander C. King and Miss Marian E. Woodtag, H. F. Singer and J. K. Orr, $50 each. Donations of $25 were received from Cam D. Dorsey, M. A. Perst, Julian Schoen, Goodloe Yancy, Winship Nunnally, D. H. Strauss, John D. Simmons, Fred Patterson and Dr. M. L. Brittain, president of Georgia Tech.

DEKALB POLICE CHANGE BLOCKED

Safety Commission Barred by Legal Restrictions, Attorneys Say.

Legal restrictions against such delegation of authority by the county commissioner will prevent the formation of a DeKalb county safety commission to handle reorganization of the police force, Commissioner C. A. Matthews Monday said in a letter to A. E. Foster, foreman of the grand jury which suggested the safety commission.

Commissioner Matthews quoted his attorneys as saying: "You have no legal authority to delegate the exercise of those discretionary duties to any other person or body. These duties were placed on you by act of the legislature and no other person nor body can authorize the performance of these duties by any person other than yourself."

The grand jury had proposed that the safety commission consist of Sheriff Jake Hall, Solicitor D. P. Phillips, of city court of Decatur; Solicitor-General Claude C. Smith, Commissioner Matthews and a private citizen, J. C. Johnson. The matter grew out of the county police situation created by the case of A. W. Lilly, former chief of police.

At birth, the body of a human being is well stocked with iron but is poor in calcium, says a well-known professor of chemistry.

Jury Will Continue Salary Survey Today

Survey of county affairs in general and salaries in particular, launched last week by the Fulton grand jury, will be continued at a special session of the jury to be held this afternoon following the regular Tuesday morning session.

The jury last Friday began an exhaustive survey of county affairs and all members of the county board of commissioners and the county auditor were invited to appear. At the end of the session members of the jury intimated that in their opinion salaries in the county, though materially reduced recently, were still too high, and said that this point would be taken up today specifically. It is expected that the commissioners will again appear before the jury.

The commissioners are scheduled to meet Wednesday for the consideration of ways and means of meeting the April pay roll, as the county loan is tied up by injunction proceedings in the state supreme court, and the March pay rolls were met only through monies collected on delinquent 1932 taxes.

BURGULARS GET $110, JEWELRY MONDAY

Burglars looted the safe of St. Luke's Episcopal church and the box of the Original Waffle Shop, 62 North Pryor street, early Monday morning and got a total of $110 and a small quantity of jewelry, according to police reports.

The safe at St. Luke's yielded $10 and the jewelry to the burglars, while the $100 was taken from the ice box of the waffle shop, police said. They expressed the belief that someone had been locked up in the restaurant when it closed business for the night and had taken the money. The church safe was not locked.

Miss M. E. Yancy, of 1041 West Peachtree street, an employee at the state capitol, reported to police Monday afternoon that a purse containing $7 in cash had been stolen from a drawer in her desk.

Court Upholds Divorce To Save Second Wife

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., April 3.—(AP)—A divorce decree declared fraudulent by the court that granted it was allowed to stand today by the state supreme court on the ground that the injury to the second wife and her child by voiding it would be "past estimation."

Two Alabama women, one the divorced wife, and the other widow of a World War veteran, went into the supreme court for an unraveling of the matrimonial tangle.

Mrs. Emma Lou Maples, of Gurley, Ala., obtained a chancery court order here in 1931 setting aside the divorce of B. F. Maples obtained in 1917, but the supreme court reversed this voiding order on the appeal of Mrs. Bertha D. Maples and her son, B. F. Jr., of Owen's Crossroads, Ala.

PALM BEACH SUITS SHOWN IN MAKING

A film showing every stage and detail of the manufacture of Palm Beach suits, women's clothes, and shoes, was shown to local clothing at the Piedmont hotel Monday evening.

The film was made for the Goodall Company, of Sanford, Maine, manufacturers of Palm Beach clothes, and was presented here by Henry Zetoch for the company. He is taking the picture to the leading centers of the country.

The scenes show the factory at Sanford, including the separate buildings used for each phase of manufacture of Palm Goods fabrics, which are made out of mohair fleece and long staple cotton. The looms, and the dyeing plant, were shown in operation, and close-ups showed the weaves.

Airplane views were shown of the plant, and the actors in the picture showed in detail every process of manufacture.

One of the parlors was filled with local merchants, some of whom handle Palm Beach lines in Atlanta.

The picture is introduced with an attractive "each scene, showing the latest in summer fashions. Another scene shows the interior of a clothing store."

GEORGIA VETERANS LOSE $3,699,588

New Regulations Will Greatly Reduce Amount Paid Out in This State.

New disability allowance and compensation rules will cut $3,699,588 a year from the total cash payments of the Georgia veterans of the World War, John M. Slaton Jr., manager of the veterans' bureau here, said Monday. Captain A. L. Henson, director of the state veterans' service office, said that he expects a flood of applications for re-rating in cases not service connected for the reason that no compensation is payable unless the rating be permanent total.

Manager Slaton said that his figures do not include widows and other dependents of veterans. Spanish-American War veterans and civil employees all of whom are paid directly from Washington. Only 825 of 16,316 Georgians receiving disability allowances are rated as totally disabled, eliminating 15,690 entirely, Slaton said.

There are 7,654 persons in Georgia drawing compensation for service-connected disabilities, who will be cut 20 per cent to make a reduction of $24,748 a year, Slaton said. Elimination of the 15,690 non-service disability cases and the cut of 50 per cent for total and permanent disability will reduce Georgia payments by $2,874,840, he said.

The present waiting list at the Atlanta Veterans' hospital numbers 800, and of these it is unlikely that more than 15 or 20 will be eligible under the new regulations, Slaton said. About 25 per cent of cases treated here have been service-connected, he added.

This ratio is not representative of all Georgia hospitals, as the local institution is for general medical and surgical work, and the Augusta hospital is devoted to neuro-psychiatric cases, an "overwhelming majority" of which patients have service-connected disabilities," Slaton said.

Captain Henson said that regulations respecting hospitalization of war veterans are entitled to hospitalization regardless of whether their disability was service-connected, he said.

"Tubercular patients are rated as total and permanent until the malady is arrested," Captain Henson said. Practically every one of the 18,000 active files in his office will have to be analyzed to ascertain new ratings, veterans may obtain, Captain Henson said. The department is prepared to represent all veterans before the bureau, he said.

Road Budget Filed, But Not Made Public

Secrecy Monday surrounded the submission of the highway department's quarterly budget to Governor Eugene Talmadge.

The budget was sent to the governor Monday morning by Captain J. W. Barnett, chairman of the highway commission. The governor immediately dispatched it to State Auditor Tom Wisdom, who is assistant director of the budget. He said Mr. Wisdom would study the chart for several days and then return it to him. The governor would not comment on the budget nor would he permit the auditor to make public its figures.

Captain Barnett likewise would not discuss the finance sheet other than to say that he felt the board had made the best reductions possible for the coming three months.

Other budgets to be submitted to the governor Monday were those of the state board of health and the comptroller general's department. In accordance with the governor's previous instructions both had been reduced 20 per cent under the budgets of last quarter. The reduction was ordered by the governor when treasury figures showed that the state is more than $1,500,000 behind tax collections of last year.

TUBERCULOSIS GROUP IN "DIAGNOSIS" DRIVE

The Atlanta Tuberculosis Association, which joined the nationwide "Early Diagnosis" campaign Saturday announced Monday that every member of the Fulton County Medical Society and clinics of the association would be requested to serve those people who cannot afford a private physician, with diagnosis and treatment. At present some 3,000 persons are under care of the clinics and nursing service.

L. D. Sharp, president of the association, said if it were possible to isolate all people afflicted with tuberculosis the fight to stamp out the plague would soon be won. He called upon doctors and laymen to work together in the cause.

MARATHON DANCERS GET LICENSE TODAY

With 18 couples and two solos surviving, the marathon dance faced a week of interesting events at the Palais Peachtree.

Monday a "show" was given for Mack Robertson and Alice Robinson, who will obtain their license today and will be married on April 10. The ceremony will be one of the most picturesque events of the dance.

The proceeds taken in by the management will on Wednesday be given to Mayor Key's unemployment fund, and those attending will not only enjoy themselves but will also contribute to one of Atlanta's worthiest charities.

Crowds continue satisfactory, but the staying power of the dancers has been surprising to the management.

PORTRAIT OF GEORGIAN IS GIVEN COLUMBIA U.

A portrait of Mrs. Winifred Edgerton Merrill, Ph. D., former Georgian, who was the first woman to receive a degree from Columbia University, has been presented to the university and is the third portrait by Mrs. Helena Eastman Ogden Campbell, former resident of Macon, to hang on Columbia walls.

The painting of Mrs. Merrill is the joint gift of the class of 1883 at Wellesley, the Zeta chapter of Phi Delta Gamma, and the Women's Graduate Club. The portrait was officially accepted by Dr. Nicholas Murray Butler, president of Columbia, from Dean Virginia C. Gildersleeve, of Barnard College. The artist is the daughter of the late Mrs. and Mrs. J. Monroe Ogden, of Macon, and a native of Eastman, Ga., which was named for her maternal grandfather.

$25,000 Hoard of Gold Found in Detroit Home

DETROIT, April 3.—(AP)—Twenty-five thousand dollars in gold pieces and $1,500 in currency were found by police early today in searching the house of Mrs. Josephine Schwass, 76-year-old recluse who died suddenly of heart disease last night.

Her son, J. F. Schwass, asked police to make the search after he had found his mother's body in a coop where she was overcome while feeding chickens. He explained that he knew his mother had drawn her life savings from various banks prior to the banking holiday.

The money was in a black traveling bag.

MRS. JULIA HARWELL, PIONEER, DEAD AT 84

Mrs. Julia Fleming Harwell, 84-year-old Atlanta pioneer and member of a Georgia family well known in Methodism, died Monday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Frederick J. Mashburn, of 930 Greenwood avenue, N. E. She had been ill for several years.

Mrs. Harwell was the daughter of the late Count Pulaski and Martha Bembry Fleming and was a niece of Green B. Fleming, Revolutionary War hero. She was born in south Georgia and moved with her parents to Atlanta 65 years ago.

Active in church work all her life, Mrs. Harwell was a member of St. Mark Methodist church at the time of her death, though she had been instrumental in the building up of St. John's Methodist church and the Payne Memorial Methodist church. She was a poet and had contributed to many periodicals.

Surviving her, besides her daughter, are two sons, R. M. Harwell and David J. Harwell, both of Atlanta, and several grandchildren.

Funeral services will be held at 2 o'clock this afternoon at the residence of her daughter on Greenwood avenue and Dr. Ryland Knight will officiate. Interment will be in West View cemetery. Awtry & Lowndes are in charge.

L. & N. FREE DELIVERY EXPLAINED BY AGENT

The response of increasing numbers of shippers to the Louisville & Nashville railroad's recently inaugurated free pickup and delivery service is revealed in the recent statement of W. N. Hicks, agent of the Louisville & Nashville railroad here, that business handled by his company had increased about 50 per cent during the month of March.

Explaining the working of the new pickup and delivery plan of the Louisville & Nashville railroad, Mr. Hicks said: "The tariffs governing this new service of the Louisville & Nashville allow for free store-door receiving and delivery of less than carload freight shipments consigned to or received from points on the Louisville & Nashville railroad within an approximate radius of 230 miles of Atlanta."

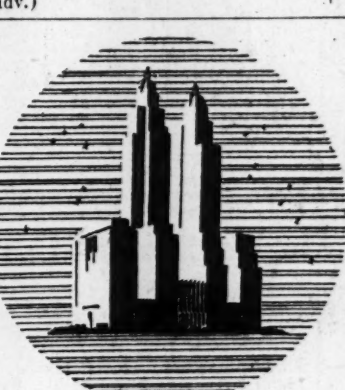

"At the option of the shipper and on payment of a nominal charge, shipments beyond the free zone are accorded this door-to-door service. When a shipper or a consignee performs their own delivery service to or from a Louisville & Nashville railroad depot an allowance of 5 cents a hundred pounds is made, this amount to be paid at such time as the consignee or consignor requests. Only bulky and unwieldy articles, or such shipments as require special equipment for handling and from the care of the railroad are refused this special service."

HOUSE SETS GUARD UPON U. S. PAPERS

Bill Passed to Bar Dissemination of Prejudicial Information.

WASHINGTON, April 3.—(AP)—The Summer bill to impose heavy penalties on persons who make public or publish diplomatic information "prejudicial to the safety or interest" of the United States was passed by the house today under a suspension of the rules.

The vote was 229 to 29.

Chairman Sumners of the judiciary committee said its immediate passage was requested by the state department, but refused to make public the reasons.

Representative Kvale, farm-laborer, Minnesota, said the measure would "set up a censorship" of the press.

The state department said tonight that one section of the Sumners bill "was suggested by the department of state for the purpose of protecting our diplomatic codes and to make possible the prosecution of any person guilty of tampering with them."

The state department statement added: "The first half of the bill is desired by other departments to prevent the sale of documents coming into possession of employees of the government. The bill in effect is an amendment to house resolution 11057, which was introduced in the house of representatives on April 1, 1932, at the instance of other departments of the government."

"The bill is in no wise intended as a muzzle for censorship of the press," Chairman Sumners, in his report on the measure, said the justice department helped to frame the bill.

The maximum penalty under the bill is a $10,000 fine or 10 years' imprisonment, or both.

Charging that the state department had "never been frank and fair" on its information, Representative McFadden, republican, Pennsylvania, said the measure "reminds me of the war period from 1917 to 1920, when we were not permitted to understand what the state department was trying to do."

Envoy's Auto Stolen.

WASHINGTON, April 3.—(AP)—A large sedan owned by Lounghart Astrom, the Finnish minister, has been stolen. Astrom reported to police that thieves broke the lock on the garage door at the Finnish legation and made away with the automobile whose license tags bear the conspicuous number 325.

COURT DISMISSES SUIT AGAINST R.C.A. SHARES

WASHINGTON, Del., April 3.—(AP)—Federal Judge John P. Nields today dismissed the petition of Torquay Corporation for an injunction restraining the distribution of 7,500,000 shares of Radio Corporation of America stock, ordered in a consent decree obtained by the government last November.

The decree disbanded the affiliation of R. C. A. General Electric Company and the Westinghouse Company. The latter two companies would be the R. C. A. stock to be distributed.

Judge Nields also dismissed the supplemental petition by the Torquay Corporation which asked for leave to intervene in the matter.

DO HEADACHES DRIVE YOU CRAZY?

It's the worst kind of folly to dope and drug yourself every time you have one of those blinding, throbbing headaches. For drugs only relieve the pain for the moment, and in a little while the headache returns worse than ever and you have to drug yourself all over again. You've got to get at the cause.

Poisons created in your own body cause these severe headaches, and you must remove the poisons to get relief of a lasting nature.

By starting the new harmless Cream of Nujol treatment, today, you may free yourself from this constant torment.

This new form of Nujol is specially designed to rid you of poisons which very often cause this condition.

Cream of Nujol contains no drugs, and does not in any way interfere with your work or play. It is delicious to take. Moreover, you can use this modern treatment at a cost of but a few cents a day.

Take Cream of Nujol night and morning. Begin this very night and give it a real trial. Buy it at any drug counter.

New White House Pool Soon Will Be Ready

WASHINGTON, April 3.—(AP)—The White House swimming pool probably will be ready for use within a few days.

A crew of laborers was busy excavating today and the work had proceeded far enough to convince Lieutenant Colonel T. S. Grant, director of public building and grounds, that there was no obstacle to placing the pool in the west wing between the White House and the executive offices.

Colonel Grant said the pool would be about 18 by 38 and that it was expected to cost about $15,000.

Funds for it were raised by several newspapers and legislation was passed authorizing the White House to accept the contributions.

HEARINGS FINISHED ON CARRIER PLANS

WASHINGTON, April 3.—(AP)—Hearings have been completed by Secretary Roper on the administration's plan for re-organization of the nation's railroads to effect economies and the work of drafting the necessary legislation was begun today with the idea of laying it before President Roosevelt before the end of the week.

The president's advisers on the railroad situation were understood definitely to contemplate the appointment of a federal co-ordinator with board powers over the roads.

The plan for bringing all of the nation's carriers together under a leasing system of seven groups was said to have been discarded.

After lengthy conferences with representatives of the carriers, labor and shippers a definite plan was said to be contemplated to protect labor.

Donald Richberg, attorney for the Railway Labor Executive's Association, and A. F. Whitney, chairman of the association, submitted vigorous opposition against any unification which would force more men out of the industry.

They contended that under the plan some 350,000 employees would be dismissed and produce "a chaos of labor disputes."

Richberg said it was "utterly impractical and would be intolerable from the standpoint of public interest to confer upon any private interests authority and power to put such a program in effect."

There is only one method whereby the government could assume and fulfill its responsibility to protect the public in the speculation here as to the exercise in the emergency of complete and direct federal control," he said.

Grand Jury Ends Quiz In Cult Slaying Case

INDE, Ky., April 3.—(AP)—After hearing only three witnesses, the Martin county grand jury late today concluded its investigation of the slaying of Mrs. Lucinda Mills during a strange mountain religious ceremony and was ready to present its report to Circuit Judge J. F. Bailey at the opening of court tomorrow morning.

The investigation included charges of murder, conspiracy to murder and aiding and abetting; the choking to death of the mountain woman, in her late sixties, who was found bound in chains in the home of Tommie Boyd, a son-in-law, last February, near Tomahaw, a Martin county village.

4 APPOINTMENTS SENT TO SENATE

Claude Bowers Given Post in Spain as Woodrough Goes to Bench.

WASHINGTON, April 3.—(AP)—Caught up somewhat on his emergency legislative program, President Roosevelt today turned briefly to the absorbing subject of patronage. In a burst of nominations, he forwarded to the senate the following appointments:

Sumner Welles, of Maryland, to be assistant secretary of state.

Claude G. Bowers, of New York, to be ambassador to Spain.

Joseph W. Woodrough, of Nebraska, to be judge of the eighth circuit court of appeals.

Harry M. Durning, of New York, to be collector of the port of New York.

Late in the day Mr. Roosevelt went over other appointments with Postmaster-General Farley, and there is every prospect of additional choices soon for many of the plums still on the democratic administration tree.

There appeared today to be considerable maneuvering over some of the appointments.

It was understood in one high quarter here that John S. Cohen, Atlanta publisher and vice chairman of a national committee, has been offered the post of treasurer of the United States.

There is considerable doubt, however, whether he will accept this offer. The post of treasurer of the United States is a plum, and James M. Cox, former governor of Ohio, can be persuaded to go into the government service.

Several "little cabinet" jobs remain to be doled out by the administration as well as many diplomatic assignments.

The posts at Rome, Tokyo, Berlin and Havana are among the most important ones still to be filled, and apparently some of these, including that at Berlin, will wait for a while.

Among the early appointments expected are those of Mr. Ruth Bryan Owen, former representative from Florida, to be minister to Denmark, and Mrs. Nellie Taylor Ross, former secretary of the U. S. G. I., to be one of the important offices in the capital.

The name of Clark Howell, Atlanta publisher, also is mentioned prominently in the speculation here as to a place in the diplomatic corps.

SOLONS CONSIDER THIRTY-HOUR WEEK

WASHINGTON, April 3.—(AP)—The 30-hour week bill, which its advocates say will create 100,000 jobs, is to be considered by the senate today. The bill was passed by the house late today.

The five-day week, six-hour day bill of Senator Black, democrat, Alabama, was made the unfinished business for the day.

The entire afternoon, although it will be laid aside temporarily when the farm relief bill is ready for floor consideration, either late tomorrow or Wednesday.

Arms Embargo Wins Committee Approval

WASHINGTON, April 3.—(AP)—After agreeing to give legislative preference to the arms embargo resolution, the house committee today delayed formally reporting the rule until tomorrow to give the opposition an opportunity to be heard.

Chairman McNamara of the house foreign affairs committee said he would seek house action Wednesday, under the rule providing for three hours of debate but no amendments.

Democratic leaders said today the committee delayed before the rules committee and urged legislative action for the embargo to place an embargo on shipments of arms and munitions to foreign countries in conflict.

$4,311,342 Is Paid To Georgia Veterans

WASHINGTON, April 3.—During the fiscal year 1932 a total of 7,194 Georgia veterans of World War received $4,311,342 in disability compensation. It was learned at the veterans' administration here today.

In addition, 15,767 veterans received $2,655,618 as disability allowance and 225 emergency officers received $389,541.

Officials of the administration said that although hundreds of people had written from all over the country asking for a list of all veterans receiving disability compensation or allowance, no such list had ever been prepared, and it was impossible at this time to give the names and addresses of veterans from the various states who would be affected by President Roosevelt's economy program.

Gray Hair Best Remedy Is Made At Home

To lift pins of water add one ounce bay rum, small box of Barbo Compound and one-fourth ounce of glycerine. Any drugist can put this up or you can mix it at home at very little cost. Apply to the hair twice a week until the desired shade is obtained. It imparts color to streaked, faded or gray hair and makes it soft and glossy. Barbo will not color the scalp, is not greasy and does not rub off. —(adv.)

Stops Skin Itching In Two Minutes

This formula for skin diseases is astounding the most skeptical in the marvelous way it relieves severe cases of Ringworm, Athlete's Foot, Eczema, Tetter, Itch and other parasitic skin troubles. The minute it touches the sore spot, you feel a soothing, cooling sensation. In a few days you marvel at how your skin has healed. If you suffer with skin diseases of any kind, get from any drugist a 60c box of Tetterine, and get relief or get your money back. —(adv.)

ROOSEVELT URGES ACTION ON BILLS TO HELP FARMERS

Washington, April 3.—(AP)—President Roosevelt, commenting at his office on the bill, pointed out that it would reduce interest and amortization payments by 2 per cent for five years on mortgages on farms valued at 4-1/2 per cent. The average interest rate now is 5-1/2 per cent, while the amortization charge of about 1 per cent will be suspended.

Praise for the president's program came immediately from Senator Borah, republican, Idaho, in a statement, in which he urged monetary changes "permanent help, remarkable relief for agriculture without refutation."

President Roosevelt's proposal was praised by Senator Borah, republican, Idaho, on which the interest shall be guaranteed by the United States. The bonds may be issued for two purposes, namely, (1) making new loans; (2) exchanging bonds for outstanding mortgages.

"The federal land banks within two years from the time the act takes effect (or until the farm loan commissioner finds that federal land bank bonds are readily salable on the market at 4 per cent) may issue not more than two billion dollars in 4 per cent bonds on which the interest shall be guaranteed by the United States."

"The maximum rate of interest payable on farm mortgages outstanding or made within two years from the effective date of the act shall not exceed 4-1/2 per cent per annum."

"The limit as to amount of a mortgage shall be $50,000."

Jury Is Completed For Triangle Trial

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., April 3.—(AP)—Selection of a jury to try Mrs. C. R. Frazier for the murder of her husband's secretary, Miss Manona Murrell, was completed in federal court here today.

The box was filled with 12 men. Taking of testimony begins tomorrow morning when the first of the government's approximately 30 witnesses will take the stand. The defense indicated it will call about 15 witnesses.

Mrs. Frazier shot and killed Miss Murrell on the lawn of the federal building last December 16 as the secretary was leaving Frazier's office after the day's work. Frazier then was district supervisor for the federal narcotic service.

Ala. Court Upholds Senate Amendments

MONTGOMERY, Ala., April 3.—(AP)—The state supreme court today ruled that minor senate amendments to the income tax bill would not need the house concurrence, considered a decisive victory for administration plans in the legislature. The income tax bill passed the house by a one-vote margin and supporters feared putting it to another test in the house.

Robinson Explains Points Of Farm Refinancing Plan

WASHINGTON, April 3.—(AP)—Here is an analysis of the administration's farm indebtedness refinancing bill introduced today by Senator Robinson, of Arkansas, the democratic leader. The analysis was introduced by Robinson soon after he introduced the bill:

"The bill to refinance farm mortgages contains among other the following important provisions:

- "1. The federal land banks within two years from the time the act takes effect (or until the farm loan commissioner finds that federal land bank bonds are readily salable on the market at 4 per cent) may issue not more than two billion dollars in 4 per cent bonds on which the interest shall be guaranteed by the United States."

Just what does PRICE mean to you?

To most men it is the decisive factor in buying a suit. Quality to them has been limited by a price tag. Style and fit have suffered likewise. But no longer. We are now able to offer all of our finer hand-tailored clothing at popular prices without sacrificing one feature that makes them so worthwhile. No particular man can neglect them.

ATLANTA, GA., APRIL 4, 1933.

THE LIBRARY CONFERENCE.

The southern conference on libraries, soon to be held at the University of North Carolina under the auspices of the American Library Association and the Southern Library Association, will discuss ways and means of bringing the south to a more equal plane with other sections in the matter of public libraries.

The growing demands on the all-too-few-and-far-between libraries of the south indicate the importance of an extension of this service.

Largely as the result of the unemployment situation, men and women who have never before been in a public library, have sought them to spend idle hours either in reading for pleasure or in study for which they did not have time when occupied in offices, stores or factories.

THE ONLY HOPE

In discussing the purpose of the approaching conference, Dr. Frank P. Graham, president of the University of North Carolina, calls attention to the fact that—

Most of the people in the south, especially in the small towns and rural areas, are without access to libraries, and with the growing importance of the agency through which we must expect the stream of knowledge to reach all the people, those without access to libraries are at an increasing disadvantage. It seems, therefore, none too soon for us to begin to give more thoughtful consideration to the library and its place in the southern scene.

TRAGEDIES WITH A LESSON.

The series of automobile accidents in and around Atlanta during the week-end, in which two persons were killed, three critically injured and five others less seriously hurt, emphasizes the emergent need for more rigid traffic regulations and stricter enforcement.

The life of a promising young Tech student was snuffed out Saturday night when he struck an unlighted automobile on the highway between Atlanta and his home at Madison.

Thousands of unlighted, or improperly lighted, machines are to be seen traversing, or parked, every night on highways all over the state. They are an imminent threat to the life of every automobilist using the roads and while the operation of an automobile without two lights in the front and one in the rear is prohibited by law, a case is seldom made against the owners of these improperly lighted cars.

A MISTAKEN POLICY.

The usually calm Boston Herald is led to indulge in sarcastic criticism of Superintendent Campbell, of the Boston public schools, for his stand against retrenchment in governmental expenditures, "except when absolute necessity has been shown."

The Herald wonders if Superintendent Campbell reads the newspapers and, if so, if he is "aware of what has happened to persons in private industry."

Professor Campbell's statement that "the people will not allow organized minorities to dictate what reductions shall be made in school budgets," brings the comment from the Herald that "organized minorities composed of persons with an attitude entirely like his have brought us to our present dangerous plight."

THE GREATEST THREAT TO LIFE AND PROPERTY IN GEORGIA NOW IS THE RECKLESS AND ILLEGAL DRIVING OF AUTOMOBILES ON THE PUBLIC THOROUGHFARES.

The only way to lessen this threat is to follow the example of the progressive states of the Union and enact drivers' license laws, which will keep the incompetent and irresponsible from behind the driving wheel, and establish a state police patrol to hold in check those inclined to violate the law.

Bills seeking both of these reforms died in the recent session. They should be revamped and prepared for immediate introduction when the legislature meets next.

In the meantime, the local police authorities of every county in the state should redouble their efforts at enforcement of the traffic regulations, in order to lessen as far as possible the tragic losses the state is now suffering from automobile accidents.

THE WORLD'S WINDOW
BY PIERRE VAN PASSEN.

False Rumors.

How easy it is to stir up strife and produce serious international complications in times of stress such as this, was evidenced once more in Paris where a group of papers suddenly launched the news that China had ordered 1,500 airplanes in the United States and that as many American army pilots were accompanying the shipment. These pilots were said to be on temporary leave of absence from the United States army to help the Chinese. The news produced a sensation, for if that would not be a warlike act on our part, what is?

But that was not all. Immediately another group of papers gave a realistic account of war activity in Canada. Steamers loaded to the gunwales with munitions and tanks were said to be steaming out of Vancouver harbor bound for the Orient. Canada, so it was insinuated, was all set to run to the aid of Japan, as if that country needs any help. As in the case of the first rumor, Canadian papers were claiming the Japanese armies to fight the Chinese. One paper wondered what would happen if the American and Canadian squadrons met in the Manchurian sky and shot one of those hair-raising aerial battles.

The Court Serves Only to Make Injustice
Legal If Witnesses Won't Tell the Truth
By Robert Quillen

If you have business in another man's yard, and the man's dog advances upon you with tail wagging and ears pricking and then he barks at you, what will be your future reaction to the dog's signal of good will?

Will you ever trust him again? Will you ever again have confidence in his deceitful tail?

That is the penalty the liar brings upon himself. The truth he tells is questioned by those he has deceived.

Unfortunately, he never knows how much his mendacity costs him. He occasionally loses a friend, a patron or an opportunity, but nobody explains the loss and his vanity attributes it to something else.

SOVIET TRADE TO U. S.

MOSCOW, April 3.—(AP)—A possibility that soviet Russia may transfer to the United States some of its purchases heretofore placed in Germany was suggested today by the German government's chief economic organ, Der Industriale, in warning Germany that it risks trade reprisals if it attacks soviet economic organizations and soviet citizens there continue.

The newspaper declared recent anti-soviet activities in Germany, in the face of Chancellor Hitler's enunciation of a friendly policy toward Russia, "provides sufficient ground for a change in our economic relations with Germany, no matter how valuable those relations have been to both countries."

THE ONLY HOPE

In discussing the purpose of the approaching conference, Dr. Frank P. Graham, president of the University of North Carolina, calls attention to the fact that—

Most of the people in the south, especially in the small towns and rural areas, are without access to libraries, and with the growing importance of the agency through which we must expect the stream of knowledge to reach all the people, those without access to libraries are at an increasing disadvantage. It seems, therefore, none too soon for us to begin to give more thoughtful consideration to the library and its place in the southern scene.

TRAGEDIES WITH A LESSON.

The series of automobile accidents in and around Atlanta during the week-end, in which two persons were killed, three critically injured and five others less seriously hurt, emphasizes the emergent need for more rigid traffic regulations and stricter enforcement.

The life of a promising young Tech student was snuffed out Saturday night when he struck an unlighted automobile on the highway between Atlanta and his home at Madison.

Thousands of unlighted, or improperly lighted, machines are to be seen traversing, or parked, every night on highways all over the state. They are an imminent threat to the life of every automobilist using the roads and while the operation of an automobile without two lights in the front and one in the rear is prohibited by law, a case is seldom made against the owners of these improperly lighted cars.

A MISTAKEN POLICY.

The usually calm Boston Herald is led to indulge in sarcastic criticism of Superintendent Campbell, of the Boston public schools, for his stand against retrenchment in governmental expenditures, "except when absolute necessity has been shown."

The Herald wonders if Superintendent Campbell reads the newspapers and, if so, if he is "aware of what has happened to persons in private industry."

Professor Campbell's statement that "the people will not allow organized minorities to dictate what reductions shall be made in school budgets," brings the comment from the Herald that "organized minorities composed of persons with an attitude entirely like his have brought us to our present dangerous plight."

Finds Berlin Doing Business as Usual.

BERLIN, April 3.—(AP)—Reports that numerous Jews were fleeing from Germany were followed today by a government announcement that after midnight no one may leave Germany unless he has a special permission stamped on his passport by the police.

The government did not explain this action, but for several days there have been reports of a Jewish exodus.

Free of the anti-Jewish one-day boycott, business appeared to be going on in Berlin as usual. Jews in the professions, however, began to feel new restrictive measures. In Berlin the number of Jewish lawyers permitted to practice was limited tentatively to 35, and at Frankfurt-on-the-Main the number of Jewish brokers on the stock exchange was tentatively cut from 35 to eight.

Fred Sington's Inspiration

Miss Ann Graham, who used to go to University of Alabama dances on the bid of Freddie Sington, and who is here as a star member of the Broadway Rhapsody Company, is shown above with Gene Austin, famous crooner, as she and members of her company saw the Crackers play Cincinnati yesterday.

Mr. Wilbert Robinson was bustling around yesterday afternoon trying to sign a very beautiful young lady to an Atlanta contract.

She was Miss Ann Graham, who is starring here with the Broadway Rhapsody company, and she went to the ball park to see Freddie Sington, the reigning sensation, play baseball. It seems that Miss Graham used to go to the dances at the University of Alabama on Freddie Sington's bids.

She was sitting with members of her company on the front row, arriving a bit late. Sington came up and shook hands and went up to hit.

He hit the very first ball pitched for a home run, driving it far into the republican bleachers.

"Young lady," said Your Uncle Wilbert Robinson, "come here at once. I want to sign you to a contract," he said. "I want you to be here every day this season and sit on the front row. When Sington comes up to hit I want you to shake hands with him. You seem to give him home run inspiration."

Just then Colonel Tillinghast L'Hommedieu Huston came up and halted Your Uncle Wilbert Robinson. Colonel Huston is the chief adviser for the ball club and Your Uncle Wilbert Robinson is not supposed to make a move without consulting his chief adviser.

"What action is this you are taking so precipitously, Robby?" asked Colonel Huston.

"I am trying to get this young lady to sign a contract to serve as inspiration for us," he said.

"Wilbert," said Colonel Huston, "you are improving. A few more acts such as this and I will believe you do not need an adviser."

Miss Graham regretted it very much but she had to go on with the show.

"Very well, I will buy the show," said Colonel Tillinghast Huston.

But that deal fell through, too. At any rate that is how the Crackers almost signed up some inspiration.

SPANISH WAR VETS IN REUNION.

"This looks very much like a reunion of the Spanish War veterans," said Jack Ryder, the eminent baseball writer from the well-known Cincinnati Enquirer, as he trudged into the "Cracker" baseball lot yesterday afternoon on the heels of his Cincinnati Reds.

"Do my eyes deceive me or is that Colonel Til Huston, of the old 1st New York and the 4th Engineers?"

Jack Ryder was accompanied by Jack Hendricks, another Spanish-American War veteran and for many years a major league manager.

Colonel Tillinghast L'Hommedieu Huston had come up from Brunswick, in his capacity as chief adviser to Your Uncle Wilbert Robinson, president of the Crackers. He had some advice to give to Your Uncle Wilbert but he put it down on the train coming up and went off and forgot it. It is supposed the porter got it. And so Your Uncle Wilbert Robinson had to give some advice to the chief adviser.

When the argument was settled as to whose dogs had marched the farthest following the flag, the talk turned to baseball.

And for the first time the story was told of how Jack Hendricks almost became manager of the New York Yankees and would have been had it not been for his pledge to help out a friend.

Jack Hendricks was managing a club in the American Association when Col. Til Huston and Col. Jake Ruppert purchased the New York Yankees in 1915. They called on Jack Hendricks and offered him the job of managing the Yankees. But Hendricks had given his word to the owner of his club to stick with him and he refused to break it.

Bill Donovan got the job and he was succeeded by Miller Huggins. Jack Hendricks stepped in at St. Louis to replace Miller Huggins—which proves nothing at all but only goes to show how things work out.

THE BEST CONTROL.

Red Lucas, the Tennessee boy from Goat Hill, Maury county, who was here yesterday with the Cincinnati Reds, had the best control of all pitchers now in major league baseball, according to figures recently released.

The Red pitcher, one of the best right-handers in the game, has a life-time average of 1.69 bases on balls per game. Two other Redleg pitchers, Silas Johnson and Benny Frey, are also listed among those stingy with those charity passes to first base.

Pitcher	Club	No. Inning	B.B.	Av. Game
Red Lucas	Cincinnati NL	1,645	183	1.69
C. Hubbell	New York NL	1,166	130	2.53
W. Clarke	Brooklyn NL	1,264	141	2.79
C. Brown	Cleveland AL	735	82	1.90
R. Kramer	Pittsburgh NL	1,935	215	4.74
J. Russell	Cleveland AL	1,288	143	3.05
B. Frey	Cincinnati NL	540	60	1.32
S. Johnson	Cincinnati NL	597	66	1.54
H. Penneck	New York AL	3,445	384	9.17

Hubbell, Clark and Penneck are the left-handers. Which would seem to disprove the theory that all southpaw are wild, mentally and physically.

YANKS, PIRATES PICKED TO WIN IN PRESS POLL

Four Score Experts Select New York; Improvements Noted.

By Alan Gould,

Associated Press Sports Editor.

NEW YORK, April 3.—(AP)—The seventh annual Associated Press "penalty poll," with a hat average of .500 to its credit since 1927, points today to the New York Yankees and Pittsburgh Pirates as the probable winners of the 1933 major league baseball races.

With the opening of the season barely a week off, four score experts vote the world champion Yankees a wide margin over all rivals, although noting especially the improvement of such clubs as the Washington Senators and Chicago White Sox. The same critics, however, figure the Pirates have added sufficient strength to overthrow the Chicago Cubs, particularly since the league champions lost Kiki Cuyler.

Exactly 90 out of the 79 American league ballots favor the Yankees to repeat and thereby claim their eighth pennant since 1921. An even dozen name the Senators to spring an upset at the worst, take second place away from the Athletics. Six others still like the chances of St. Louis despite the loss of Slim Sallee from the Philadelphia firing line, but this represents a distinct falling off in support for the Mackmen.

Simmons' shift to the White Sox apparently inspired on solitary pennant vote for the Chicago club. The consensus also reveals the high esteem in which the great slugger is held, his big bat attracting enough votes to make the White Sox the choice over Detroit for fifth place. This is higher than the Sox have been rated in five years.

The National League ballots totaled 81, of which 42 picked the Pirates to finish first and 21 remained loyal to the chances of the Cubs making it two years in a row. The Pirates have been named twice before in the Associated Press poll as probable pennant winners and they, too, have a batting average of .500. The Pirates' first place prediction of the experts is winning in 1927 but ran second in 1928 to the St. Louis Cardinals.

CARDS, PHILS THIED.

This year the Cardinals and Philadelphia are rated nip and tuck for third place. Each received eight votes for first place, to illustrate the wide differences of opinion among National league experts. The Cardinals have a slight edge in the ratings as a whole, but the prospects of the Phils are considered better than ever before.

Brooklyn and New York are picked for second division berths for the first time, this despite the fact the Dodgers were third last year and figure to be stronger.

DECATUR PLAYS UNIVERSITY NINE

A three-way tie for leadership of the North Georgia Interscholastic Conference baseball league will be decided by one today when Decatur and University, two unbeaten teams meet at Piedmont park in the feature game of the fifth round of the schedule.

Fulton, defending champion for the past two seasons and another of the leaders, will play Druid Hills at Druid Hills, but will face a favorite to repeat in a tie with the winner of the Decatur-University game for the lead.

Other games this afternoon are Gainesville and Marietta at Marietta, Commercial and North Fulton at Buckhead, and Marietta and Russell at East Point.

The Commercial-North Fulton game should attract plenty of attention as the two are battling for second place in the standing.

Izzy Gastanaga Kayoes Doktor

CHICAGO, April 3.—(AP)—Izzy Gastanaga, Spanish heavyweight, knocked out Joe Doktor, of Buffalo, after one minute and 20 seconds of fighting in the first round of their scheduled 10-round battle at the White City arena tonight. Gastanaga weighed 195 pounds to Doktor's 190.

Fred Sington Latest Of Dobbs' Proteges

By Jimmy Jones.

"The more they come the better they get." It was John Dobbs, the old fox hood fancier, talking, and he was referring to the brand of baseball players they turn out over at the University of Alabama.

It was the first time this spring that Dobbs had laid his peepers upon the rugged outlines of his ex-protégé, Freddy Sington, and he admitted that the human powerhouse was a brand-new eye-ball.

"He's a 100 per cent improved ball player since I saw him last," said Dobbs. "He couldn't hit a curve ball when he first came to me, but look at him now; he can hit anything."

Dobbs said he felt all along that some day Fred Sington would blossom out into a great natural hitter. "Those Alabama boys are like that; I've had about a dozen of them start out on my ball clubs and every single one of them came through and made good," Dobbs continued.

First there was Derrell Pratt, whom Dobbs discovered. Then there came Joe Sewell, one of the great shortstops of the game, who was on his 1920 hall club at New Orleans. That was the year Ray Chapman, the Cleveland star, was killed by one of Carl Mays' pitches and the Indians sent a rush call to New Orleans for a shortstop. Dobbs sent them the youthful Sewell when the Indians promised him that as recompense for his loss, they would send him "some players just as good."

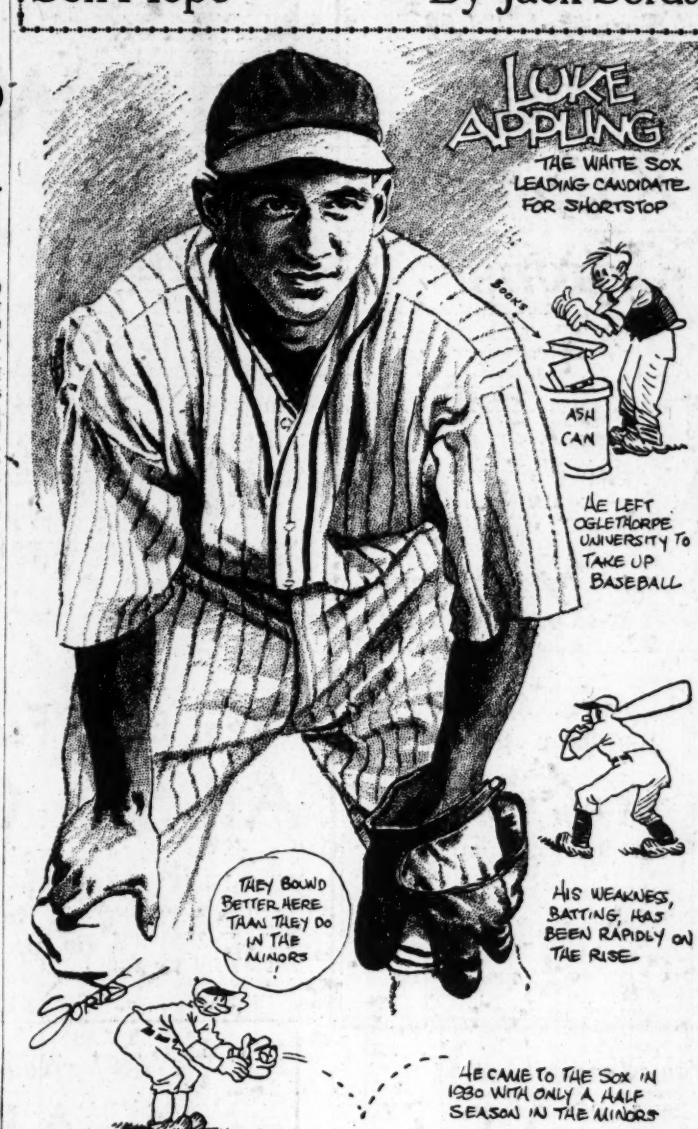

The players never came but Sewell became a star with the Indians and stayed up there to help win a pennant while Dobbs was losing one at New Orleans.

New Orleans To Use George as Catcher

Former Oglethorpe Star Outfielder in Line for Reserve Position, Gilbert Wires.

By Jack Troy.

Charley (Greek) George, who left Oglethorpe after a brilliant season as a sophomore last year, played with Albany, Ga., for a spell, departed for Cleveland and worked around the ball park, eventually landing with Williamsport in the New York-Pennsylvania league, is being given a real chance with New Orleans as a catcher.

George caught the first game of the double-header with Cleveland Sunday. He has been used frequently by Manager Larry Gilbert, who changed him from an outfielder to a catcher because of George's natural ability and professed desire to play that position.

Billy Evans, owner of the Indians, had a good word for George when he was here recently. Evans looked over Oglethorpe prospects and had a talk with Coach Frank Anderson.

Evans gave George a job around the ball park last summer before the strapping young prospect got a job with Williamsport. Evans has been watching his progress at New Orleans, where both the Pelicans and Cleveland are training.

RESERVE JOB.

"George is not likely to win a first string catching berth this season," Larry Gilbert wired, "but he is in line for the reserve position."

George hit hard for Oglethorpe in the 1932 season, supplying a punch that carried the club through a good year. His departure left an outfield problem that has not been satisfactorily settled.

An aim to hear that Gilbert is using George as catcher. Coach Anderson said yesterday, "That is the position he has always wanted to play. I understand he is hitting them on the nose."

HITS HARD.

And that seems to be the case. George is still hitting them a mile. He has a strong throwing arm and good baseball sense. Experience seems to be his greatest asset.

So there will be an Oglethorpe boy in some of the Southern league games this season, wearing a Pelican uniform.

Luke Appling, another Oglethorpe star, who has been up for several years, is being counted on heavily by the Chicago White Sox. There are many other the club through a good year. His departure left an outfield problem that has not been satisfactorily settled.

Sutter Is Winner In First Round

HOUSTON, Texas, April 3.—(AP)—Cliff Sutter, of New Orleans, downed Gordon Pease, University of Texas sophomore, in the feature first-round match of the Houston tennis invitation at River Oaks Country Club today. The scores were 6-1, 4-6, 6-1.

Other first-round men's singles results:

Dick Covington, of Asheville, N. C., beat William Zimmerman, of New York city, 6-0, 6-1.

Shaughnessy Meets His Chicago Squad

CHICAGO, April 3.—(AP)—Chicago's "new deal" in football started today as a new coach, Clark Shaughnessy, took charge of the university's gridiron forces for the first time in 42 years.

The successor to the venerable Amos Alonzo Stagg was given an enthusiastic ovation by 41 candidates for the 1933 team at the initial spring practice of the year and countered with an inspiring lecture.

After the examination Jackson, who has not played more than three innings in an exhibition game, said he would be in the opening day lineup if Manager Bill Terry gave the word.

TWO EUROPEAN CHAMPS MEET AT AUDITORIUM

Garibaldi, Brunowicz in Main Event; Zarnos, Nabors Matched.

Another entertaining mat show, featuring a clash between two European champions, will be offered Atlanta fans at the city auditorium tonight when Henry Weber stages his weekly card, Gino Garibaldi and Frank Brunowicz, heavyweight title-holders in Italy and Poland, respectively, meet in the two-hour limit main event match.

Jack Zarnos, the stormy Greek youngster, from Ohio University, battles Sid Nabors, Kansas City giant, in the semi-final bout, also to be decided by the best two falls in three, while a 15-minute preliminary between local middleweights will pry open the card promptly at 8:15 o'clock.

POPULAR HERE.

Ever since Garibaldi's first appearance here last fall, he has been a popular draw. The Italian has been high in popular favor here. Built somewhat like London and the possessor of a wrestling style very similar to that of the world's champion, Gino differs from the Gorgeous Greek principally in his consistent aggressiveness and willingness to take all sorts of chances. "No grappier other than London has displayed so keen a scientific knowledge of the principles of leverage."

In recent weeks both Whitley Hewitt and Tom Marvin have bowed to Garibaldi, but Brunowicz figures to provide sterner opposition than either of them. The sturdy Pole is coming to Atlanta in fine fettle. He has been wrestling several times a week of late in the New York area, where he is in great demand, and has compiled an enviable series of victories over good men. Right now Brunowicz is on the crest of a bout with the Piedmont champion, a defeat of Garibaldi would enhance his chances of a shot at the title considerably.

COLORFUL.

Win, lose or disqualify, Zarnos has never failed to provide the fans here with plenty of excitement. Only last week he staged a great battle with Joe Savoldi, the old Notre Dame star, and had the customers standing in their chairs before he was eventually disqualified for repeated use of his knees on Savoldi's midsection. Jack has remained here training since that match. Nabors, though young, is an experienced amateur, and feels that he can protect himself against Zarnos' rough tactics. The Kansas City boy comes here touted as one of the best prospects developed in the middle west in recent years.

The auditorium doors will be thrown open at 6:45 o'clock, but in order to avoid congestion, fans are urged to purchase their tickets some time in advance of the opening of the doors or the Miner & Carter Drug Company.

NOTED OFFICIALS TO WORK RACES

Paul Morris, of Springfield, Mo., one of the outstanding horse racing track builders and owners in the country, and C. D. Stevens, of Dallas, Texas, a starter, have been secured to work with officials of the Southeastern Fair Association in promoting the running races at Lakewood park April 10-15.

Morris arrived Monday and will start work today on getting the mile oval in shape for next week's races. He was formerly associated with Billy Evans at New Orleans and superintended the building of tracks throughout the country. He is under contract to condition the Hawthorne, Hancock and the City (Col.) tracks before their 1933 meetings.

Stevens is one of the 11 race starters recognized by the American Jockey Club and has worked at many of the most prominent mid-western and west coast tracks.

Officials of the fair association received word Monday that a carload of horses will arrive Wednesday from the New Orleans tracks and will work out during the latter part of the week.

Governor's Day will be observed on Wednesday, April 12, and Friday, April 14, has been reserved for Atlanta Day. Both state and city officials will be honor guests.

Three horses, War-Glow, Lee Rack and Gallipoli, from the O. L. Foster stable, worked out early Monday and showed some unusually good speed. They will be given light work on Wednesday and another speed trial during the latter part of the week.

Atlanta Jockey To Ride Here.

Clarence Ballard, Atlanta boy, returned home Monday from Tia Juana, Mexico, where he has been riding during the winter months, and will be out to ride the Veech horses during the race meet at Lakewood park April 10-15.

Ballard was glad to get back home after a successful season on the Mexican speed circuit, and was pleased to learn that Atlanta is going to sponsor a running race meet.

Feature Races On Rink Program

A mile race for Class C skaters, a half-mile free-for-all event and a quarter-mile race for ladies are scheduled for tonight at the Roller Skating Rink, 671 Peachtree street.

Some of Atlanta's outstanding amateur speed artists, including James Reddy, Cecil Batley and Bill Higgins, are expected to enter, according to Harry Fisher, manager of the rink. Free tickets to the rink will be awarded to race winners.

The weekly rink party will be held Thursday night with a series of contests and fancy skating exhibitions arranged for the evening. Night prices at the rink have recently been

FRED SMACKS FIRST OFFERING FOR ALL FOUR

Atlanta Gets 11 Blows Off Bob Smith and Eppa Rixey.

By Jimmy Jones.

Fred (Powerhouse) Sington came out of his batting slump—which lasted exactly two days—to hit a home run and a single in three official times at bat yesterday as the Crackers dropped a well-played exhibition on a wintry afternoon to the Cincinnati Reds, of the National league, at Ponce de Leon park, 6 to 3.

The Redlegs played without the guidance of their manager, Donie Bush, who has gone to Cincinnati to have an infected foot looked after. Sinyea, young owner of the Reds, and Jack Hendricks, the team's ex-manager, were here, however, and watched the game. They predicted a better showing for their team this year, provided Sunny Jim Bottomley, former Cardinal first baseman, who looked very good yesterday with two doubles and a single and Chick Hefner, another veteran star, come through for them.

HIT HARD.

The Crackers hit the ball very well, indeed, yesterday, touching Bob Smith, Atlanta boy who has doomed the Reds' delivery, and the ancient but still cunning shortstop, Eppa Rixey, for 11 hits. They were a bit too widely scattered, however, to do any damage to the National legions.

Big Sington's home run, which crashed in his favorite spot, the republican grandstand, was the big thrill of the afternoon in so far as the 700 Atlantans who braved the chilly weather were concerned. It signaled the big fellow's return to hitting form, after being stopped by Professor Monte Weaver's magic last Saturday.

Incidentally, it was Sington's fourth home run in his last five games, three off big league pitchers. A young lady in the stands—an old friend of Fred's, by the way—asked him to hit a home run for her and, obliging to a fault, he parked one of Bob Smith's pitches in an upper tier of the stands in the third with Art Weiss on base.

McKEE STARS.

A couple of nice catches by Duke McKee, who felt against the bank in center field in the seventh to stab Taylor Doughter's long drive and Bonowitz, who scampered up the right field bank like a cheetah to spear Blair's high fly in the eighth, were Cracker fielding features. Young Rudy Laschowski, the stocky 17-year-old rookie, relieved Red Rollings at third base in the fourth and drove out two nice hits, in addition to fielding well.

Sunny Jim Bottomley, an old favorite with any crowd, was the hitting star for the Reds. Jim, who plays first with his same old devil-may-care propensity, singled and tripled and doubled and singled and fielded his position brilliantly, to lead the Redlegs to victory. He and Chick Hefner batted in two runs each and looked to be in fine form. Otto Blumge, kid brother of the famous Ossie, of the Senators, who preceded the Reds here, played third and looked very good in the field. Leo Durocher, former Cracker, and Charles Blase, former Little Rock Traveler, played the entire game at short and second, respectively.

SMITH TO VISIT.

These two players were watched closely by the fans, as well as Bob Smith, who started the game at first base. Neither was hit very hard, saving Jim Bottomley, and he will hit any pitcher.

A number of notables, including John D. White, manager of the Cincinnati Reds, and Colonel Tillinghast L'Hommedieu Huston, Cracker director, and undoubtedly is watching the movements of Fred Sington, saw the game.

The Crackers' play with St. Louis Browns, which was played with Andy Messenger and Ted Kleinhaus scheduled to pitch.

TERRY'S FRIENDS SEE NEW YORK BEAT MEMPHIS

Giants Collect 16 Hits To Beat Chickasaws,
10 to 2.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., April 3.—(AP)—While Carl Hubbell and Bill Shores were spacing the Memphis Chickasaws' six hits over many innings, their teammates pounded out 16 blows off three hurlers to give the New York Giants a 10-to-2 decision over the Southern Association team.

Bill Terry's home-town friends turning out to honor the Giants' manager, saw the major league contest with seven doubles and nine singles. Four of the hits were put together for a five-run attack in the fifth while three more hits netted three runs in the seventh.

CHISOLM LOSE.
TUCSON, Ariz., April 3.—(AP)—Pittsburgh pounded Ted Lyons hard today to overcome a four-run lead and defeat the White Sox, 9 to 6, in the first of their spring training exhibition series.

Successive doubles by Swetonic, Jensen, Lindstrom and Paul Waner drove in six Pirate runs in the sixth inning. Lyons led the White Sox clubbing with four hits off Mike Meola and Henry Johnson.

RED SOX WIN.
JERSEY CITY, N. J., April 3.—(AP)—The Boston Red Sox today lunched most of their eight hits in the sixth inning to gain their second consecutive shutout over the Jersey City club, 6-0. The International League made but four hits off Mike Meola and Henry Johnson.

Cather Mervin Shea featured the Boston batting with a pair of doubles and Roy Johnson also connected for an extra base hit.

TIGERS BEAT SMOKIES.
KNOXVILLE, Tenn., April 3.—(AP)—Closing their performance with a slugfest that netted ten runs in the eighth and ninth innings, the Detroit Tigers defeated the Knoxville club of the Southern League today, 14 to 11.

The Bengals were trailing as they went into the eighth inning, but a home run by Stone and a triple by Reiber started the procession around the paths to victory. Reiber and Gehring also got home runs.

INDIANS VICTORS.
NEW ORLEANS, La., April 3.—(AP)—Oral Hildebrand and Forest Twoogood pitched shutout baseball today as the Cleveland Indians whipped New Orleans, 16 to 0. Every member of the Tribe made at least one hit except Twoogood, who batted but once. Harley Rose, rookie first baseman, hit a home run and two singles.

CARDS WIN.
COLUMBUS, Miss., April 3.—(AP)—The St. Louis Cardinals defeated the Meridian team, 18 to 3, in an exhibition game here today.

"Pepper" Martin, back at the base, for part of the game, counted for a hit on each of his two trips to bat. Only one error, by Medwick, left fielder, was charged to the Redbirds.

SOLONS TRIUMPH.
CHATTANOOGA, Tenn., April 3.—(AP)—Washington closed its stand here today with a clean sweep of the two-game series, winning 15 to 9 from the Lookouts.

PHILLIES WIN.
PHILADELPHIA, April 3.—(AP)—Chuck Klein and Virgil Davis hit home runs as the Phillies squared the city series with the Athletics today, winning the second game, 9 to 6. Bob Johnson, rookie outfielder, also hit for a circuit for the A's.

Mails Reports At Kansas City
KANSAS CITY, April 3.—(AP)—Walter (Duster) Miles, pitcher, reported for practice with the Kansas City American association, baseball club today and for the second time in his career, found himself working for Tris Speaker.

In 1920 both were members of the Cleveland Indians when that team won the American League pennant. Speaker now is manager of the local club.

THE SPORTLIGHT By Krawford Rice

When the history of this dip, depression or soggy spot of finance is written, one of the most unusual features will be the manner in which sporting crowds continued to gather through the moody stretches.

On the night of the earthquake in Los Angeles, the speedy dodo boxing show was a sell-out, the big crowd swarming in less than three hours after the terrain began to sway and dip.

Hockey has had one of its best years and there is every promise that the two big league pennant races will be up around the average half lead in these cities which can remain in reaching distance of the top.

If the National league race is as compact and as well balanced as it now looks to be, this circuit should do extremely well.

The main idea on the American league side will be to prevent the Yankees from galloping over the hill and far away—too far away to keep interest steaming in rival camps.

Just at this early moment the Yankees look to be the class of both leagues. Their one main weakness may be over-confidence after the runaway romp last summer and the world series cakewalk. They are not invincible; but they have a margin in pitching and punch that will be hard to break up. They are not 100 percent well; but you can't keep the populace churned up in cities that are 10, 12 or 15 games away from the top.

MODEL LAUNDRY
'PIN' CHAMPION
The strong Model Laundry five swung their big guns into play last night to win a five-game championship playoff and the city title from the Old Timers by the count of 2,715 to 2,619.

The Model Laundry was winner of the first half of the Old Timers' recently claimed title to the second half.

Getting a 10-pin handicap per game, the Old Timers were cooled, even break with the Laundrymen, and having an opinion on the recent bowling averages of the old boys, an edge was conceded to the Old Timers.

However, the Model Laundry started with a 572 game and by the end of the second game had cut down the handicap and taken the lead, which they never relinquished, though the Old Timers threatened to close several times.

Out of the five games played the Model Laundry actually won four games and the Old Timers won one. The Old Timers' total was 500, 467, 535, 526, 496. Walter Lawson had the high individual score of the night with 578. Howard "Strike" Parker was second with 575 and Howard had the high game of 139.

John Bell was high for the Old Timers with a 522 set.

Georgia Wins
Four in Row
In Polo
GAINESVILLE, Fla., April 3.—(AP)—Superior horsemanship and accuracy with the mallet enabled the University of Georgia to make it four in a row over the University of Florida polo team here this afternoon. They defeated the Gator riders, 7 to 3, in today's game.

Ed Downs and Bill Wood, each scoring two goals, led the Bulldog charge.

Florida did not tally until the fourth chukker when Marcus Milam tallied two goals. Frank Jones drove Florida's other score. Good play by Pat Conroy marked the Florida exhibition.

Joe Knight Wins Over Bill Cox
MACON, Ga., April 3.—(AP)—Joe Knight, Cairo light-heavyweight, won a 10-round decision over "Wild Bill" Cox, Macon, here tonight before a crowd of 2,000 fans.

Cox, using a crouching, weaving style, suffered heavy punishment throughout and lost every round. The crowd was thrown into turmoil at the end of the eighth when Knight, angry and suffering from a cut over his eye, kept punching with Cox's head and foot when the bell. It took the referee, Joe Ashley, and ringers to halt them.

Knight weighed 169. Cox 164.

Primo's Love Life Costs Him $14,500
LONDON, April 3.—(AP)—A breach of promise judgment of 14,500 pounds (approximately $14,500) against Primo Carnera, the prize fighter, was awarded today to Miss Emilia Tersi, an English girl.

Carnera did not appear in court. The evidence presented included several letters written to Miss Tersi. Among the things the letter said were: "Dear treasure of mine, you can have trust in your Primo because he loves you with all his heart and soul." "Emilia, my dearest little girl whom I love, I won my second fight here in America. This letter was dated February 1930."

"You can live tranquilly because I will not have another girl but you. They are all an aversion to me. They frighten me, all but you. You will be my wife before a year."

DEMOCRATS SEEK TIGHT HOUSE RULE

Absolute Control by Majority Object of Move by Leaders.

WASHINGTON, April 3.—(AP)—Reinstatement of a rule designed to restore almost absolute control of legislation to the majority was sought today by the house democratic leadership.

The proposal under consideration would require the signatures of 218 members to force house action on any bill not approved by a committee. Unlikely to pass in its present form, the measure would require 145 members by signing a petition can bring a house vote on any bill they choose.

That rule, Chairman Poy, of the committee, said today as the measure was being considered, would require the signatures of 145 members to force action on any bill they choose.

MRS. AUS HOLLAND DIES IN GAINESVILLE

Funeral Services for Prominent North Georgian to Be Held Today.

GAINESVILLE, Ga., April 3.—Mrs. Annie O. Holland, 68, well-known Gainesville woman, died Sunday night at the residence. The funeral services will be held Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the First Baptist church, conducted by the pastor, Rev. Roland G. Leavelle, assisted by Rev. William A. Keel, pastor of Central Baptist church, interment will be in the Vinson cemetery.

Mrs. Holland was born and reared in Forsyth county, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Hunt, pioneer cotton planter of the county. She was a member of the Baptist church.

She is survived by five sons, E. F. P. M. and C. A. Holland, of this city; F. L. Holland, of Atlanta; C. A. Holland, of Flowery Branch; five daughters, Mrs. Gennie Benson, Mrs. J. F. Duckett, Mrs. C. M. Shultz, Mrs. E. H. Evans, of Florida, all brothers, Robert Hunt, of Texas; two sisters, Mrs. Susie Patterson, of Texas, and Miss Ella Hunt, of this city; 11 grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

TALMADGE STRESSES NEED FOR ECONOMY
By MARK TEMPLE.
CANTON, Ga., April 3.—(AP)—Governor Eugene Talmadge told a representative crowd of Cherokee county voters here tonight that Georgia is on a "gasoline drunk" and that economy of government must be cut in half.

Concerning the general assembly, he said both houses had some good men in them, but he said the legislature was the better of the two. Some members of the senate, he said, "thought the capitol was across the street in the highway department."

However, he said, "if we get them back we may be able to do something." A sales tax, he said, should come as a last resort, after all existing methods of taxation have been broken down.

"We may be driven to it," he said, "but we must first clear out the cobwebs and petticoats." The state, he said, should do away with "every office we possibly can do away with and reduce the cost of government."

Prosperity, Talmadge said, cannot be legislated back to life but must come about by the combined effort of working men and business men.

Motor cars have brought about a new standard of living which is the cause of the greater part of our present financial trouble, he said. The only thing to remedy the situation is to reduce the cost of government.

The occasion for the governor's address was a meeting of the Cherokee county farmers' union, which was held at the Cherokee county courthouse.

This plant buys products from the farmers. A 600-acre ranch on which 150 head of fine cattle recently has been opened and the county leaders believe the ranch will encourage farmers to improve their herds.

Cherokee county commissioners, said the county's finances are in good shape with money on hand. Dr. N. J. Coker, chairman of the county board of health, said the county's teachers had been paid monthly and would be because of the excellent condition of the county's budget.

Bainbridge Man Ends
His Life With Shot
BAINBRIDGE, Ga., April 3.—Evans Belcher, 33, died in a hospital here today after a long illness. He was a native of Bainbridge and had been in the city for several years. He was a member of the First Baptist church and was a well-known community worker.

QUITMAN AREA HIT BY BRIEF TORNADO
QUITMAN, Ga., April 3.—(AP)—A tornado, dipping suddenly with a roar in the midst of a negro settlement here, killed three persons and inflicted slight injuries to several negroes tonight and tore a path through the settlement. First reports were that there was no loss of life.

Houses and trees were blown down. Warned by a dark cloud and the roar of the storm, most of the residents of the section fled from their homes and took refuge wherever they could. Many threw themselves prone in ditches and clung to whatever seemed to offer protection. The storm dipped into the settlement, righting a pair of windmills and blowing over a few blocks, and then passed away. It hit at 7:43 p. m. and lasted about a minute.

Gene Austin, Appealing as Ever, Scores Again With His 'Rhapsody'
If this comment reads as though it had been written in a fearful rush, blame Gene Austin and the audience at the Erlanger theater Monday night. He sings with a maturity and last night during the progress of "Broadway Rhapsody," the show that Gene headlines and that is with us for the week, when it seemed as though the crowd had got enough of his songs before daylight. They would applaud and Gene, generous to a fault, would respond with another number. More applause and another encore. And so on and so on and so on.

There is an appeal about Gene and the songs he sings that makes you want to listen to him the whole night through. He sits at the piano and deftly plays a little accompaniment. He croons a few notes and sings a word or two. Then he croons some more and sings some more and he croons a few notes and sings a word or two. Then he croons some more and sings some more and he croons a few notes and sings a word or two.

UNIVERSITY WOMEN TO MEET SATURDAY

Valdosta To Be Host To Delegates From All Parts of State.

VALDOSTA, Ga., April 3.—The Georgia division of the American Association of University Women will meet in Valdosta Saturday, April 8, for a one-day session at Hotel Daniel Ashley, assembling a large group of Georgia's most outstanding women.

The Georgia division will be guests of the Valdosta chapter American Association of University Women, of which Dr. Lena J. Hawkes is the president. The business calendar is filled with a number of interesting matters for consideration of importance to the state-wide organization.

The social side of the meeting will include a number of delightful affairs, chief among them being a luncheon at the Georgia State Woman's College and a tea at 5 o'clock Saturday afternoon at the Woman's building, at which the Wymondusia Club will be hostess.

Among the outstanding guest speakers on the program of the state meeting will be Mrs. John Morris of Atlanta. Mrs. Morris will have for her subject "The College Women in the Present Economic Crisis." Speakers have been received already from all parts of the state indicating that a large number of delegates from various chapters will be in attendance upon the meeting.

And Tracey and Hay, dancers, just about as good as we've seen in Atlanta in years.

And the Bricktops, that splendid aggregation of red-headed girl musicians, whose orchestra adds lots to the perfection of the performance.

The Wolf Pack, a straight singer who won encores both with "Trees" and "Brother, Can You Spare a Dime."

And maybe a few others overlooked in the hurry to catch the final home edition.

All in all, a splendid show that you'll enjoy. All the more because we've had a scarcity of fresh and blood entertainment this season. It'll be at the Erlanger every night this week, with Wednesday and Saturday matinees. If any of your friends were there last night they'll tell you not to miss it. If they were not, let's be a friend for once and tell you the same.

—RALPH T. JONES.

Barry. Bart suspects his Aunt Augusta and Warren of stultifying on his father's secret and inviting the Baylors to Wrayville to expose his father's infamy. FOURTH ACT—The intrigue. NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY.

INSTALLMENT XXXI.

Mrs. Farnham's face was all drawn in, the muscles of a cobra about to strike.

"Why do you ask, Mr. Burgess?"

"It's a matter of business."

"I'm not interested in that." The woman was drawing a glove over a narrow hand. Then slyly she looked up and asked, "Did Mrs. Bayley send you here?"

"I came of my own accord."

"Then she's been telling you her side of the story."

"I know part of it. It's very important that I should know the rest."

"You'll learn nothing but the advantage. Be sure that Evelyn had hoped to lead that sort of life, and have no doubt, to escape the penalty. If you have come to ask about her, probably you have a good reason."

"The best reason in the world, Mrs. Farnham."

Still she hesitated, her eyes boring into him with a dull glitter.

"You were there when I met her yesterday?"

"Yes."

"That was the first time we'd met—after how long? Nearly 16 years. She wouldn't have come, you may be sure, if she'd known I was going to be there."

"Why not?" shooting at random.

"She was waiting for the undecided serpent, considering whether to matter any further."

"What?" Her neck arched to strike.

"I thought it was a matter of business."

"If it was told that you knew all about Mrs. Bayley, I hoped you'd tell."

"I will." Dry leaves rustled under the coils. "She was an Evelyn Condon."

This contributed nothing to what he wanted to know, except uneasiness and confusion. He had come to ask what Mrs. Farnham knew about his father and her son, and he had been told on Evelyn Condon. They had been talking at cross purposes, these two. . . .

... a twisted smile. "Evelyn was an actress in a disreputable stock company. Possibly she has told you otherwise, Mr. Burgess. But I made a careful inquiry—very careful—before she took my only son away from me."

If she paused for effect, it was quite a different one from what she had intended. The woman who chose to call herself Bayley had taken Mrs. Farnham's son away from her. . . .

"What had this to do with anything?"

"You have asked me for the facts," said Mrs. Farnham with her narrow smile. "Well, I'll tell them to you. Please don't interrupt me. Evelyn Condon's parents were some sort of wandering Irish people. Her father was an actor in the British army, and she said, Well, some very queer customers come over here with that story. And I don't believe her mother was so fond of him. I think she was many imposters come to Philadelphia with those tardyviduities. When Mrs. Condon and Major Condon died I didn't notice Lord Condon doing it. I was in the States. The actors took up a collection. . . ."

Mrs. Farnham was now charmed with the story, presenting her side of it. She smiled as she talked, striking, striking.

"How?"

"I had plenty of witnesses. Everybody knew that she visited in actors' dressing rooms—that she went to mid-night orgies—supper at midnight—chose to call them—in her manager's hotel apartments."

"And she told her at one of those orgies," said Bart, and could not restrain a smile. He was becoming sidely with her story; his heart was singing with it.

"What difference does that make?" The evidence against her was enough to prove that she was an immoral person. The same evidence would prove that O'Brien. He was a very good friend of ours, a classmate of my husband's, a fair, fair man on the bench. Naturally he was horrified. Especially when we talked to him about it: before the case went to trial he told me that he was sure that Evelyn was unfit to be a mother. He tried her without a jury because, he said, juries are so prejudiced. Evelyn didn't care a fig for all that. It only took Judge O'Brien one morning to find out that the baby she kept under the custody of her grandparents until he was born was a girl."

Bart Burgess leaned forward, drew a long breath; he was still smiling when he asked, "Then what did she do?"

"It was a plain case of kidnapping." Mrs. Farnham bared her long yellow teeth. "She ran away with the baby, just as she did with the other one. It was when she snatched my Arthur. Instead of letting the child be raised as she should have been, in our family, she chose to live in hideousness from pillar to post. These Bohemians don't care how they live. We've spent a small fortune trying to trace her again, but she's never been found. I'm sure now Evelyn's shown her face again among decent people."

"That's all right," said Barry, but he was not listening. He was trying to keep his voice down to a dolorous pitch. "But you were rather fond of her?"

"My girls all took me in their confidence an' discussed their lovers with me about as much as they did the weddin' dresses."

Mrs. Jordan's Paper
At Atlanta U. D. C.

The principal feature of the program of the Atlanta Chapter, U. D. C., held Tuesday, was the reading of Mrs. Harvie Jordan's paper on the history of the chapter by Mrs. George Knott. The paper told of the untiring work of Atlanta women, headed by Mrs. Helen Plane, who were determined to have an especial room in which Confederate news could be easily viewed by visitors to the Cotton States Exposition, held in Atlanta in 1895. Soon after the event, the Atlanta chapter was organized at the home of Mrs. Ed Peters, with Mrs. Helen Plane the prime mover and first president. Then, as throughout the succeeding years, the outstanding women of the city have been enrolled among the members, and their ideal has been to establish and preserve truths of southern history, to honor and assist Confederate men and women in every way.

Mrs. Jordan, the historian, cleverly outlined the progress of the chapter during the 38 years since its establishment in 1895, in the brilliant achievements of many of the 19 presidents, notably the organization of the Julia Jackson Chapter U. D. C., of the Georgia division U. D. C., the U. D. C. Y. reunion, the chapter of Matthew Fontaine Murray portrait at Annapolis, and of the Alex. Stephens portrait in the Hall of Fame, the World War relief work, the buying and the furnishing of the chapter house and the entertainment of such distinguished guests as Mrs. Stonewall Jackson, Mrs. Jefferson, an son daughter, William, and the daughters of General Robert E. Lee. It is a matter of interest to know that Belle Boyd, famous Confederate spy, was one of the first to apply for membership in the new chapter. Of the original charter members, Mrs. J. D. Carter, Mrs. Louie Gholston, Mrs. J. K. Otley and Mrs. E. C. Peters stand out as prominent. Mrs. A. S. Subtle, accompanied by Mrs. Henry Baker, sang several southern songs and responded with an encore.

A Confederate afternoon is to be enjoyed in the near future at the High Museum of Art, where the U. D. C.'s will sponsor a sum of southern music, under the leadership of Mrs. Mabelle Wall. Two benefit bridge parties will be given at the chapter house, one sponsored by Mrs. Arthur Allen, chairman of the Baines Memorial Fund, on April 18, and the other sponsored by Mrs. Claude Wood, chairman of benevolence, on May 2.

Mrs. V. O. Rankin, chairman of Red Cross, reported that 13 garments were made last month by her committee. Monthly U. D. C. entertainments at Hospital No. 48, under the leadership of Mrs. J. B. Phillips, continue to be a source of pleasure for the patients and visitors. The next entertainment will be given Friday, April 7, and a musical will be given by Agnes Scott students. The chapter will sponsor a musical comedy to be given in April under the leadership of Mrs. Carol Summers.

The silver tea and antique exhibit held last week at the home of Mrs. George Knott was announced as a patriotic and financial success. Mrs. Tom Peters, one of Atlanta's distinguished pioneers, and former very active in the work of the chapter, was a welcomed guest. She and Mrs. John A. Perdue, prominent in many branches of U. D. C. work, are the two oldest "living girls" living in Atlanta. Other distinguished guests were Mrs. J. H. Newman, of Griffin chapter, U. D. C.; Mrs. W. C. Person, of North Carolina, who is visiting her sister, Mrs. William Perry, and General Driver, commander-in-chief, U. C. V.

Miss Martin Presented In Piano Recital.

Miss Bernice Martin, talented 13-year-old pianist, was presented in recital by her teacher, Mrs. Arnold D. Gregory, Saturday evening at Calvary Methodist church. Miss Martin was assisted by Mrs. J. Christopher Brown, well-known contralto soloist, with Mrs. Allen Stanford playing her accompaniments.

Miss Martin gave a program that would have taxed an older performer with fine poise, a reliable memory, and a remarkable technique for one of her years. Among numbers by Brahms, Grieg, Paderewski, MacDowell, Grainger, Philip and Levitzki, all well executed there stood out "To Spring," Greig; "Country Gardens," Grainger, and "Valse de Concert," Levitzki.

Mrs. Brown sang three groups of songs, showing both her vocal powers and her interpretative ability to particular advantage. Special commendation goes to the aria "Connais Tu," from Thomas' "Mignon," and Tosti's "The Sea." A group of Schubert's songs held particular attraction. Mrs. Stanford furnished artistic accompaniments.—Mozelle Horton.

Gordon Street Baptist Class Is Entertained.

TARZAN THE APE MAN No. 8

Parker turned to his daughter, who was standing before the mirror, beginning an elaborate procedure that clashed with the rough surroundings. "Well, I've got things to do," he said, starting toward the door. Jean laughed. "Why, father, I believe you are actually embarrassed. You—who very nearly spanked me sometimes!"

"Very nearly," answered her father. "Perhaps if you actually had, I wouldn't be so obstinate. And I AM . . . come along . . . what about this trip?" She took out a jar. "Why darling, what are you doing?" asked Parker. "Creaming my face," she replied. "What's wrong with soap and water?" he demanded. "Everything, darling . . ."

"Must keep that schoolgirl complexion. . . I can't get over Mr. Holt's Africa. 'You'll hate it,' commented Parker, grimly, 'when you've been here long enough.' 'ME? HATE AFRICA? I adore it,' said Jean. 'It's in my blood! I was born here—do you know the first noise I can remember clearly?"

"It was the far away growling of a lion." "Yes, I remember," answered her father, "you were frightened to death." "I know I was—but I adored it! Father—are you terribly tired here . . . at the store?" "Why . . . I am . . . He broke off, disliking to tell Jean what he had determined to do.
